The Company may also request additional financial and investment information from you to verify your eligibility for certain transactions, including your investment experience, qualifications, level of your annual income, source of funds, proof of tax payment, etc.

It is important that the personal information the Company holds about you is accurate and up to date. Please inform us whenever your personal data changes in the course of your co-operation with the Company.

The Company may receive information about you from third parties, such as affiliates, subsidiaries, analytics service providers, information retrieval service providers or publicly available sources if required or permitted by applicable law, including information about whether you may be on sanctions lists or is a politically exposed person.

PURPOSES OF COLLECTION AND PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

The Company collects and processes your personal data (both on its own and with the help of third-party processors) for the following purposes:

- to confirm your identity when you create a wallet and to provide access to the Company's services;
- to process your payments;
- to communicate with you and respond to your appeals, applications, complaints;
- to develop new products, services, functions;
- to fulfil the requirements of the legislation on countering the financing of terrorist activities and money laundering;
- to prevent misuse of the Company's services and protect the Company's property rights and security;
- to comply with other legal obligations of the Company.

The Company stores information about your wallet in encrypted form and does not use this information for any purpose other than to provide you with services and fulfil the Company's legal obligations.

To comply with money laundering and terrorist financing prevention legislation, the Company is required to collect, store and analyse documents that identify you, your contact details, transaction history, verification data, including from third-party sources (e.g. publicly available databases, commercial registries and sanctions lists) and other types of information required by law.

PERSONAL DATA OF PERSONS UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE

The Company does not collect or process personal data of children (under 18 years of age). Only individuals who are at least 18 years of age may use the Company's services and facilities and provide information to the Company. If the Company becomes aware that anyone under the age of 18 has provided or attempted to provide personal information and use its services, the Company will endeavour to permanently delete that information from its files.

SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA

The Company does not collect, process, store or use personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, nationality, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or concerning health conditions and sexual inclinations.

COOKIE FILES

The Company does not collect cookies for any purpose.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION MEASURES

The Company takes all necessary legal, organisational and technical measures to ensure the protection of personal data in order to avoid unauthorised or accidental access to them, change, blocking, copying, transmission, distribution, as well as their accidental or unauthorised destruction, alteration or loss.

Employees of the Company, to whom personal data became known due to their official position, assume obligations and bear responsibility for ensuring the confidentiality of these personal data. Such obligations remain in force even after the termination of work of these persons with personal data during the period of confidentiality regime preservation.

STORAGE PERIOD OF PERSONAL DATA

Personal data is kept for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected. In particular, in order to fulfil its legal obligations, the Company keeps information about you and the transactions you have carried out for 5 years after the termination of the relationship with you (when you have not used the Company's services for more than two years).

When the storage period expires and the purposes of collecting personal data have been fulfilled, they are to be destroyed.

TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA

The Company may outsource the processing of your personal data to third parties – processors (companies that assist in processing, verifying your transactions and other services; identity verification companies; fraud or crime prevention companies). These processors act on behalf of the Company and may only use your information to provide services on behalf of the Company. They are not permitted to use it for their own purposes and the Company takes all reasonable and necessary steps to ensure that the processors protect your personal data to prevent unauthorised access, blocking, transfer or accidental or unauthorised destruction, alteration or loss.

The Company may also transfer your personal data to its affiliates or subsidiaries for the sole purpose of providing services to you. However, the processing of your personal data by such affiliates and subsidiaries will be strictly in accordance with this Policy.

In any restructuring, sale of our Company, merger with another company or acquisition of a new company, we may transfer your personal data to such new entity or company, provided that any recipient will use your personal data for the same purposes for which it was originally provided to us and/or used by us.

The Company may share your personal data with law enforcement, judicial, regulatory authorities, including if necessary to investigate, prevent or take action regarding illegal activities.

CROSS-BORDER DATA TRANSFER

Many of the Company's third parties are based outside the Kyrgyz Republic, so their processing of your personal data will involve data transfers to other countries. Such countries may have different data protection or privacy rules from those of the Kyrgyz Republic. Nevertheless, the Company takes measures to ensure that any such transfer complies with applicable laws and that your personal data remains protected.

By using the Company's services provided through its facilities, you consent to the cross-border transfer of your data.

TRANSACTION TRANSPARENCY

Due to the inherent transparency of blockchain networks, the transactions you approve may be publicly available. This includes, but is not limited to, your public key address, the recipient's public key address, the amount of cryptocurrencies sent or received, and any other data you choose to include in a particular transaction.

Transactions and addresses available on blockchain networks may reveal personal information about a user's identity, and personal information could potentially be correlated now or in the future by any party that chooses to do so, including law enforcement.

LANGUAGE

The Policy may be written in several languages. In case of discrepancies between the versions in different languages, the Russian version will take precedence.

CONTACTS

If you have any questions about this Policy or the processing of your personal data, or if you wish to make a complaint or enquiry in relation to the processing of your personal data, please contact us by email at info@swapster.fi or via Telegram @SwapsterSupport. The Company endeavours to respond to your enquiries as quickly as possible.

CHANGES TO THE POLICY

This Policy is current as of the effective date set forth above. The Company may update this Policy at any time by posting a modified version on <https://swapster.fi/>, the Telegram bot @Swapsterbot or Swapster mobile application, including the effective date of the modified version. We ask that you check for updates or changes to the Policy yourself from time to time. Your continued use of the Company's services constitutes your acknowledgement and acceptance of such changes to this Policy. However, we will endeavour to keep you informed of any material changes.
